Chairman of Two Committees Make Statements on the Campaign.

Democrats Indicate They Will Be Satisfied if Majority is Less. Than That Received by Roosevelt.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 5 .- (Special)-Chairman Warner, of the republican state committee, and Chairman Allen, of the democratic state committee, have issued ward street democrats this year have been making an organization for the contest of next year and this is shown by the statement of Mr. democrats will claim a victory, so it will Roosevelt vote.

Chairman Warner's Statement. the usual republican majority. The vote this year, both chairmen agree, will be much lighter than the vote of a year ago. he voters, has this to say:

The state is safely republican. But nevertheless every republican should vots. Republicanism is no less popular this year Republicanism is no less popular this year than last, but many who are busy will neglect their duty as voters, and the total will be considerably less than last year. The opposition is worse off in that respect than we are, so we will maintain our relative majority based upon the average voted for the state ticket last year. The people have confidence in the republican party, and that confidence will be evidenced by the vote on Tuesday. Our candidates and platform are heartly approved in every precinct in the state. There is no disaffection on the state ticket anywhere. The ion on the state ticket anywhere. The republican majority can be reduced only overconfidence and neglect of republicans.

The opposition, through their committee, are explaining what their platform means and what their candidates stand for. A republican platform needs no explanation from the committee, nor is it necessary to say what our candidates will do if elected. The position of the party has not changed since the platform was adopted, and the party means what it said then. The candidates are as popular and clean as any ever nominated by any party, and stand upon the platform. If republicans do their duty by coming out, our majority will be a splendid one.

Statement by Democrats. Chairman Tom Allen of the democratic tate committee issued the following state-state committee issued the following statement:

The campaign just closed has been listless and quiet. There have been no meetings to speak of: In fact, it-would have been impossible to arouse much enthusiasm this year. This does not mean that the people are indifferent or will refrain from voting, but on the contrary it means that they have their minds made up and are ready to vote. The denocratic committee has been in touch with public sentiment and I am sure our party will make large gains in every section of the state. The people doubt the sincerity of the republican convention when it declared against the pass evil. The record of the last legislature is too recent to escape their netice, and, while the election this year means little from the viewpoint of getting the offices, it means much as a preliminary to the contest that is coasing next year I do not care to indulge in any prophecy about majorities, but you may say it will not be at all surprising if the plurality of nearly 100,000 for Roosevelt last year is changed to a democratic majority this year.

The recent insurance investigation has confirmed the charge heretofors made by those in a position to know that republican success in the past has been due to the enormous campaign fund contributed by the trusts, corporations and insurance companies. The people of this state are wondering now if any of these funds have been spent here to elect republican officials or to keep the legislature from doing its duty.

spent here to elect republican officials or to keep the legislature from doing its dusy. Some potent influence was at work dur-ing the last session and the people are ing the last session and the people are curious to know what it was.

With the people thinking about these things it would not be strange if they demanded a change. Another thing that will help the democratic ticket is the feeling that the supreme court should be a non-partisan court, and in order to keep it se it will be necessary to elect Judge Hastings. I am confident of success. The vote will be very light, probably not exceeding 70 per cent of the vote of last year.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 5 .- Francis Henricks, the state superintendent of insurance, today made public a supplementary report by R. H. Hunter, deputy superintendent of insurance, and Chief Examiner Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States at the close of business on June 30, 1906. The report first discusses the real estate of the society and places the value of its office buildings in various cities at $26,366.366 or $4,958.634 less than the sum at which they are carried on the books of the society. It is explained by the report that this reduction is made on the basis of the earnings of the buildings, which yield 3 per cent on $26,366,366. To the book value of real estate the company has acquired under foreclosure, the report adds, $22,789.07, making the total estimated value of such real estate $4,664,-560.23. Of the loans on bonds and mortgage the report says they represent $83,-721,212.16, and have an average earnings of more than 4% per cent, and "at no period of the society's existence has this class of investments been in a more satisfactory condition."

The loans made by the company on the security of policies assigned as collateral amount to $25,865,890.50, according to the report, and the bonds and stocks owned by the society have a par value of $195,-900,567, as against a book value of $219,-439,408 and a current market value on June 10, 1906, of $232,565,562.

Cash on deposit at the close of business June 80, 1905, aggregated $29,879,552.72. Of this amount $8,822,319.82 was on deposit with the Equitable Trust Company of New York, $6,425,991.47 was deposited with the Mercantile Trust company, and $5,453,911.87 with the National Bank of Commerce in New York Discussing the debit balances of agents

ODESSA, Nov. 5 .- A tour of the city and part of the suburbs today found all quiet, Whole rows of shops that were pillaged have been boarded up. The poorer Jewish quarters suffered worst and the principal streets, with few exceptions, were touched. Russian shops are marked with crosses painted on the shutters and the private houses with ikons so as to protect them from the mobs. Peasants armed with knives and scythes tried to enter the city Saturday to loot the place, but were driven back by the soldiers. The casualties in Saturday's disturbances exceed 140 and those of the preceding three days which have been verified num ber 5,500. The plundering continued early this morning in the outlying districts but today the city was relatively calm, though the population is still anxious. The latest accounts of the devastation in the Jewish quarter add horror to the situation. Besides numerous mills, the bakeries, shops and nearly 600 homes have been destroyed. The Jews in every instance were treated with revolting barbarity. Heads were battered with hammers, nails were driven into the bodies, eyes gouged out and ears severed. Many bodies were disemboweled and in some cases petroleum was poured over the sick found hiding in cellars, and they were burned to death. It is alleged that the police and the soldiers everywhere marched at the head of mobs inciting them to destroy the Jews by crying: "The Jews have killed our emperor," and similar expressions. While the mobs were engaged in the slaughter the soldiers busied themselves pillaging the cash and jewels, leaving the household goods to the mobs. The owners of many houses got rid of the bandits by that the admitted assets are $406.073,063 and payment of a ransom to the police. The police prevented anyone from arresting the same amount. They threatened otherwise to burn the university and kill the professors. Measures were thereupon taken to transfer these prisoners to the regular prison.

Quiet Sunday at Capital. ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 5 .- Sunday hap plly passed in St. Petersburg without disorders or bloodshed. The social democrats and revolutionists had planned a mammoth demonstration in connection with the and it was intended to form gigantic processions representing the various indus trial organizations in the suburbs and "President Roosevelt," said he, when flying red flags bear the bodies of the "martyrs" in state through the center of leaving the White House, as president of the city. These processions were to units at the Kazan cathedral, where the passions of the crowd might be fired by revolutionary orators. Late last night, how ever, when it became known that General Trepoff would not permit this big demonstration, threatening disorder, and that might be renominated, despite his decision the mayor had issued a proclamation, saying that the streets were no place for airing political grievances, the socialist leaders called off their plans, declaring that they feared "this demonstration of the people was marked for slaughter, for which they were not prepared at present. The people

Although the demonstration was formally abandoned. tens of thousands of spectators flocked to the Nevsky prospect. The broad thoroughfare in front of the Kazan cathedral was blocked by a great crowd of people, but there was no attempt at disorders and no attempts to use the squadrons of hussars, Cossacks and culrrassiers held in reserve in the side streets.
